

Early On Center for Higher Education

Instructional Resource Alert

February 2018

Learning to Coach with Family Guided Routines Based Intervention \(FGRBI\) (<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=265>)

In this video, a FIT early intervention home visitor describes her work with Hailey and her parents who are both military personnel. She describes how she has made the transition to using a coaching approach and the benefits of coaching and Family Guided Routines Based Intervention. This 11 minute video is created by New Mexico's FIT FOCUS Video Library.

Coaching Families Online Module (<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=266>)

Texas Early Childhood Intervention (ECI) created a training module designed to support service providers in delivering evidence-based practices. This two-hour module revisits key information fundamental to the coaching approach for service delivery, providing you with the opportunity to observe each component through video demonstrations. You will be able to utilize a coaching fidelity checklist in realistic scenarios through guided practice activities.

Three Principles to Improve Outcomes for Children and Families (<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=267>)

The Center on the Developing Child at Harvard University has released three principles, grounded in science, to guide practitioners use for optimizing outcomes for children and their families, and identifying obstacles that prevent these from being addressed.

Tools to Grow - Resources for Pediatric Therapists (<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=268>)

Tools to Grow, Inc., offers a range of products developed to facilitate partnerships between professionals and parents as they work to promote the age-appropriate developmental, social, and educational growth of young children. These resources and tools are designed to be applied within the context of the child's family and natural setting. While some resources and tools are free to download, some require a paid membership.

HIE Help Center (<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=269>)

The HIE Help Center is a resource and advocacy website that provides information and educational materials to families of children with HIE (hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy).

